3.  At least one amendment has been filed subsequent to the final rejection, and the brief does not contain a statement of the status of each such amendment (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(iv)).

(a) The brief does not contain a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal, referring to the specification by page and line number and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters; and/or (b) the brief fails to: (1) identify, for each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately, every means plus function and step plus function under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, and/or (2) set forth the structure, material, or acts described in the specification as corresponding to each claimed function with reference to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v)).

Continuation of 10. Other (including any explanation in support of the above items): The appeal brief filed October 18, 2004, was misplaced and not taken up in proper order (delays by the office). Appeal brief procedures and requirements have changed since applicant's appeal brief was filed. In order for the instant application to be board-ready, the appeal brief needs to include the following: a single brief, including all required sections should be submitted (the instant appeal brief refers back the a previous appeal brief for sections 1-4) section 5 - Summary of Claimed Subject Matter - should include references to the applicant's specification for each limitation described Applicant is suggested to refer to 37 CFR 41.37 (Revision 5, August 2006 edition) to see a list of required sections for an appeal brief.
